

Lounge Area, Terminal Building,
Archerfield Airport, Brisbane
Friday 26 July 2019, 7:00pm for 7:30pm - 9:00pm

Night Bomber: The evolution of RAF Bomber Command by Anthony Cooper

Early war RAF types like the Battle and Hampden are universally panned by critics, but how bad were they? This talk will inquire into the comparative strengths and weaknesses not only of the disparaged early types, but also of the later 'war-winning' machines that followed, of which the Lancaster was the best example.

