A Naval Aviation Career by Noel Dennet

Noel joined the RAN in 1959 and trained with the RAAF on Winjeels and Vampires.

From 1961 to 1964 he flew Fairey Gannets on HMAS Melbourne. In late 1963 he did a helicopter conversion and flew Wessex helicopters until 1966. In 1967 he joined a second line squadron for a few months but was seconded to a helicopter flight on HMAS Sydney for a cruise to Vietnam and back.

Noel flew Boeing 707s and Boeing 747 Classics with Qantas from mid 1967. He then flew B747s with Singapore Airlines from 1990 to 1994.
