

Lounge Area, Terminal Building,
Archerfield Airport, Brisbane
Friday 6 April 2018, 7:00 for 7:30pm

Whither Air Power Studies? A Personal Perspective

Dr. Ross Mahoney, an independent historian and air power specialist, will provide a personal perspective on the state of air power studies as we move through the centenary of the world's first independent air force, the RAF.

As well as discussing some of the challenges of air power studies and some of the myths associated with the subject, Ross will also cover his time as the resident Historian at the RAF Museum in the UK.

